

SOCIAL NOTES AND PERSONAL GOSSIP

Wedding of day Afternoon.

First Presbyterian church, a number of happy young have been married in the past months, was again the scene of an interesting wedding yesterday afternoon.

Miss Martha Lucile Dancy, the bride of Mr. George Elmer yesterday afternoon.

Before three o'clock, the hour of the ceremony, the church bell with relatives and friends bride and groom. The church decorated simply but with ex-taste. Growing ferns were the body of the church and about the chancel. Graceful coral vine was twined about the rail and vases and basins of pink and white carnations used effectively on the altar.

The guests assembled, Mrs. R. Javer at the organ played a selected program of bridal music, the strains changed to the music from Lohengrin, the aisle ribbons were put into by the ushers, Mr. Davis and Mr. Baxter Bryan, who took their places near the altar. Bride and groom entered together and were unattended. The beautiful of the marriage service read by Dr. Donald MacQueen, of the church.

The bride was married in her wedding suit, a smart model of and tricot in navy blue. With the wore a dainty blouse of navy serge and cream lace. Her hair was a becoming shape of cloth trimmed with silver aigrettes and other accessories corresponded. She carried an arm bouquet of roses.

Immediately following the ceremony the happy couple left for an trip down the east coast. They will be gone about two weeks and their return will make their at the Bruce Apartments on Fourth street.

Ford is the bright and at- daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dancy, and is popular in Pa- with a wide circle of friends. She made her home here for a of years, and her vivacious- and frank manner have her to all who know her. Friends are rejoiced that her to Mr. Ford will not take away from Palatka to make her. Mr. Ford is one of Palatka's progressive young business men of the firm of H. M. de- llin Company. He has num- friends here and throughout the who will be glad to know good fortune in winning such a fine bride.

A large number of out-of-town were present at the wedding day, among them being many Hastings and Federal Point, the bride formerly lived. Relatives present were: Mrs. Freeman and Miss Georgia of Savannah, Mrs. Porcher of Mrs. Flora Chase, Miss Winton and Mr. James Dancy, of Jacksonville, and Mr. Fred of Hastings, and Mrs. and C. Dancy, of Vero, Fla.

C. R. Ellington, of Jack- sonville, is spending several days with his sister, Miss Marguerite who is pleasantly located at the on Dodge street of Mrs. H. Montmolin.

A. Woodruff was a business to Crescent City, yesterday.

Friends of Mrs. G. H. Lompis, who has been very ill at her home on Fifth street, will be glad to know that she is somewhat im- proved.

W. A. Russell passed Palatka early yesterday en route to his home in City from Tallahassee.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tilden, of Park, are visiting relatives in Palatka this week.

Sarah Bard and Miss Flo- rell returned last night

PUTNAM HIGH TO PLAY FIRST GAME FOOTBALL TODAY

For the first time in its history the Putnam High School will send a football eleven to the gridiron today at 4 o'clock to engage in a game with an opposing team from another school. The game will be played at the ball park and the opponents of the local high will be the Marion High from Ocala.

Not one of the Palatka boys has ever played in a real game of foot- ball before, and some of the mem- bers of the team have never seen a game of football. But reports from practice promise that the Putnam High boys are going to reflect credit on their school and coaches. They are going on the field determined to win their first game, and in prepa- ration for the event have been prac- ticing about two hours each day for the past five weeks. They have de- nied themselves of things of which they are fond in order that they might make themselves fit to sus- tain the reputation of their school, own and county. Coach Shearouse, ably assisted by George Everson and others, have worked untiringly to prepare the squad for the fray to- day. It may surprise many to see what can be accomplished in five weeks in the way of making a foot- ball team.

Much credit is due the scrubs who went out each afternoon with little hope of making the first team this year, and offered themselves that the first team might have the benefit of scrimmage. While the team is re- markably good—considering its ex- perience, the public is reminded that the boys must have moral and finan- cial support. The Ocala boys have been playing for two years. They have lost nearly all their games but are not discouraged.

The team, the school and the fac- ulty are grateful to the Kiwanis and the Rotary clubs for making it pos- sible to have a paid coach and are also grateful to those who contribut- ed toward the support of the team on tag day, the proceeds of which were used to purchase the equipment. It is also hoped by the team that these organizations will turn out en masse so that the expenses of the visiting players may be paid with- out inconvenience. Those who do not understand the game should get some- one who does understand it to explain to them, for American college foot- ball is the greatest of all sports for developing not only the physical man, but his moral courage and stamina. The following constitutes the team for today's game from which the eleven players will be picked:

Philip Peterson, Alfred Waterman, Richard Jarrett Charles Dressler, J. D. Sibert, Arnold Waterman, Richard Knight, Clifford Trombley, Horace Ridought, Charnalle Camp- bell, Leo Knighton, Lawson Cassells, Brantly Mosely, Will Register, Sam McCormick and Thomas Jantry.

The officials today will be:
Referee—Henry Tribble.
Umpire—Jack Merriam.
Head Lineman—Louis Tenney.
Time Keeper—Fred Lecks.

SUNDAY CONCERT AT 3:30
The regular Sacred Sunday after- noon concert rendered by the Pa- latka Band will begin its program Sunday afternoon at three-thirty o' clock, instead of four o'clock, as has been the custom for the past few weeks. Director Shearouse announces that this will be the last change which will be made during the next three months. That hereafter all of the concerts will begin promptly at three-thirty.

Each week sees the attendance re- cords broken at these concerts. Last week one of the largest crowds which has ever been present attended. Such attendance lends the band the en- couragement which it needs and prompts the musicians to put forth more effort. Mr. Shearouse says that with such cooperation as he has been getting lately he will be able to give Palatka the best band in the state.

to Jacksonville yesterday afternoon, but Mr. Dancy remained in Palatka for a longer stay.

—Friends here of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Goethe, of Rodman, will be interested to learn that they expect to move to Palatka shortly to make their home.

—Miss Irene Anderson and mother, and Miss Margaret Anderson, and Mrs. J. A. Spring motored to St. Augustine yesterday and spent the day.

—A. O. Johnson returned to Pa- latka last night from a trip to points on the east coast.

—H. R. Tribble is a business visi- tor in town for a few days.
